Run for Ronald set for Saturday

Topeka, KS- May 1st ushers in the inaugural Run for Ronald 5K Walk and Run. The event is expected to draw over 300 people from Topeka, Lawrence, Lenexa, Great Bend and beyond. The 5K is a fundraiser for Ronald McDonald House Charities of Northeast Kansas. Board President Angela Sharp comments about the level of interest in the first year event, saying that “people from around the region will appreciate the well-designed recreational trail at Lake Shawnee.” More than 100 walkers and 200 runners will take different routes along the scenic lake to raise money for the charity. The race is sponsored by St. Francis Health Center Pediatric Hospitalist Program, Hill’s Pet Nutrition, Bartlett and West, Mize Houser, T and T Management McDonald’s, WIBW-TV Channel 13 and Golden Eagle Casino.
